

I am a regular listener to K-LOVE radio. I receive their broadcast here in Ohio through translator stations. There is no comparable format available in my local area. This station provides music that is uplifting, positive, and supportive of faith-based family values. I urge you to take no actions that would replace the current FM translator stations with LPFM stations.